

Informationen zu Fiji in English

Prior to entering Suva Harbour you are asked to confirm your ETA with Port Control within 24 hours of your arrival on channel 16 or when you are at a distance of 20 nautical miles from Suva.

You will then be directed to a quarantine area within the harbour where you will wait for the following officers for clearance and embarkation procedures:

- Quarantine Officers
- Health Officers
- Immigration/Customs Officers

- New Procedures for Customs Clearance

- There is a new procedure put in place by the Fiji Customs Authority for all visiting mariners.
- Upon arrival and you have done the necessary clearance with Customs in any port other than Suva and your intention is to visit Suva, you are required to clear again with Customs on arrival into the Port of Suva.
- Cruising Permit
- If your intention is to cruise Fiji waters you are required to obtain a "Cruising Permit" from the Fijian Affairs Board which is located in the "Civic Towers" building in Suva. They will also advise on the necessary protocols to be met when visiting villages either then resorts/hotels etc.

Visiting Sailors to the Club

Once cleared by the relevant officials and your intentions are to use the RSYC's facilities, you are required to register with the club (see administration Office) and a temporary membership will be issued.

There are minimal charges for usage of the club facilities which may include water, showers, dinghy dock, main dock, fuel bowser, bar, lounge area and administration which is all part of registration.

At this time the "Royal Suva Yacht Club" welcomes you and hope that your stay with us will be a happy a memorable one.
